TEDxBanbury Climate Change Countdown!

From Passivhaus To Food Sustainability

Special guests Helen Bird and Keith James from Banbury based WRAP (Waste & Resources Action Programme), together with Ian Pritchett from Greencore Construction, and Cathy Ryan representing Cosy Homes Retrofit Project, are joining TEDxBanbury for a second 'In Conversation' series this coming November sharing their visions for a greener future.

Greencore Construction who specialise in 'passivhaus', and Cosy Homes Retrofit Project will be taking part in interviews on Saturday 13 November. WRAP, now national and global, will be joining TEDxBanbury on Saturday 20 November.

The two TEDxBanbury events follow the TED Countdown Summit taking place between 12–15 October 2021, which will bring together 1,000 leaders in Edinburgh, Scotland, as TED speakers share a blueprint for an inspiring net-zero future. The Summit will be amplified by hundreds of TEDx Countdown events around the world, and through a special global livestream event hosted by TED on 30 October.

'With the impact of COVID-19, it is certainly the year for creating meaningful conversation and measurable actions with regards to the climate emergency and 'green' issues', said Ian Nutt – TEDxBanbury. 'The TED Summit precedes the UN Climate Change Conference \(COP26\) in Glasgow between 31 October – 12 November, bringing together key leaders from across the world to work in partnership and spearhead mandates for a sustainable future for us all'.

Tickets for the TEDxBanbury Climate Change Countdown events, each taking place in the afternoon, will be limited in number. They will be on sale in September and priced at £6 for each event. For further information please visit TEDxBanbury.com.
